

UNIVERSITY OF KRAGUJEVAC
FACULTY OF EDUCATION
Jagodina

COMPETITION FOR THE ENROLLMENT IN
MASTER ACADEMIC STUDIES
INTERNATIONAL TEACHER EDUCATION PROGRAM for the 2026/2027 academic year

The M.A. studies, International Teacher Education Program, are second-level studies, covering one academic year, i.e. two semesters (60 ECTS). The program is delivered in English. The program is delivered through in-person instruction, limited to a maximum of 55 students, who are required to attend classes at the Faculty facilities.

1. Number of students

The Faculty of Education in Jagodina (University of Kragujevac) may enroll up to 55 self-financing students for in-person learning.

2. Enrollment requirements

- All applicants must have obtained at least 240 ECTS during the undergraduate academic studies, in one of the following fields: humanities, arts and music, science, medicine, and technical and technological disciplines.
- The competencies in the English language needed to communicate and understand scientific discourse can be substantiated with the valid documents: (a) a certificate stating the English language competences at the level B2, or (b) Passed an interview in which an English language teacher assessed the candidate's knowledge of English as satisfactory for attending this program or (c) a Diploma Certificate proving that any prior educational level was completed in the English language.

3. Admission deadlines

	Date
Application submission period	from June 22 to July 3, 2026
a) In person	from 9:00 to 14:00 hours
b) onlain	from 00:00 to 24:00
Preliminary ranking list	July 6, 2026 by 15:00 hours

Enrollment	July 9 and 10, 2026 from 9:00 to 14:00 hours

4. Ranking criteria

The candidates will be ranked based on their GPA (grade point average) and the duration of their Bachelor studies.

All candidates will be ranked on a 6–10 grading scale. If other grading systems were used during a candidate's prior education, the Admission Committee will determine the equivalence between the grading systems and appoint the values 6–10.

If two or more candidates have the same score, the candidates will be ranked based on the first criterion (GPA), meaning that those with a higher GPA will have a priority.

The criteria for ranking applicants and making Enrolment Lists are proscribed by the Faculty Statute and the Rulebook on the Admission to the Study Programs.

5. Applicants are required to submit the following documents when applying:

- Application form (can be downloaded from the official website);
- Photocopy of the passport
- A certified photocopy of the Diploma certificate proving that the candidate has earned a Bachelor Degree;
- A certified photocopy of the Diploma Supplement;
- If the Bachelor Studies have been completed outside the territory of the Republic of Serbia, candidates are required to submit a certified diploma or other evidence that the procedure of nostrification (recognition of the qualification) has been initiated; <https://azk.gov.rs/stranica.php?id=95>
- Language Certificate (minimum B2 level) or a Diploma Certificate proving that any prior educational level was completed in the English language, or Passed an interview in which an English language teacher assessed the candidate's knowledge of English as satisfactory for attending this program.

All documents must be translated by a certified court interpreter and authenticated by the competent authority.

Application is open from June 22 to July 3, 2026

The above documents can be submitted in person to the Department of Postgraduate Studies, by mail to the address: Faculty of Education, Milana Mijalkovića 14, 35000 Jagodina, or scanned by an email: application@pefja.kg.ac.rs
